By FRANK H. SWEET
Extension Agent

This is 4-H Share-the-Fun week at Appomattox Elementary School with programs being held each afternoon from 3:30 until 5:00 in the school's auditorium. Winners will be selected each day to take part in the county 4-H Share-the-Fun on December 15 at ACHS. Share-the-Fun programs for Senior 4-H'ers will be held on November 29 and December 1 in the ACHS Auditorium after school. Local sponsorship for 4-H Share-the-Fun is provided by American Federal Savings and Loan.

Thanks to the 4-H Teen Leaders for providing a Haunted House for the Appomattox Primary School's Halloween Carnival. Teens assisting were: Bob Poole, James Cash, Jo Anna Layne, Martha Haley, Ernest Humbles, Curtis Moore, William Curd and Brett Marston. Community service projects are important for each community 4-H group.

The following young people have recently completed the Virginia Hunter Safety Education Course: Jason Carter, Ronnie Mann, Marcus Carter, Carol Clark, John O'Brien, Timmy Mann, Mark Ferguson, Dusty Wilhoit, Daryl Dawson, Timmy Carrico, Jeff Paulette, Todd Hipps, Kevin Ranson, Carmenlita Thornton and Troy Thornton. Each of these young people had six hours of instruction on gun handling, firearm safety, hunter responsibility, wildlife conservation, bow hunting and the use of muzzle loading firearms.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brochard of Pamplin have volunteered to help organize a new 4-H Horse and Pony Club in Appomattox. A meeting of all interested parents and adults will be held on Thursday evening, November 10, at 7:30 in the District Extension Office meeting room in Appomattox. All adults with an interest in horses and young people are invited to participate.

Volunteer 4-H leaders are always needed for various 4-H programs. Their efforts often go unrewarded. This year each volunteer leader will receive a subscription to The National 4-H News, a special magazine devoted to ideas for volunteers in 4-H. Special recognition pins will also be awarded to leaders with five and ten years of service to 4-H during the Annual 4-H Awards Banquet in January.

Shoplifting is target of class

Did you know that one person out of ten is a shoplifter? That losses may range up to five percent of the total sales? Enough to cancel profits of many stores. That is why the Distributive Education Department of Appomattox County High School is offering a Seminar on Shoplifting Prevention to local store owners and managers.

This seminar will look at the causes for upsurge in Shoplifting, the seriousness of current losses to shoplifters, methods used by shoplifters, and the legal aspects of shoplifting, and local law enforcement policies and procedures in handling shoplifting cases.

The class will be held on Mon., Nov. 14 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in Room 305 of the Appomattox County High School. The registration fee will be $3.00 and advanced registration is requested to prevent unnecessary cancelation of this class. To register please send checks made payable to Appomattox County High School to John McHale, Appomattox County High School, Appomattox, VA 24522 or call Mr. McHale at 352-5317.

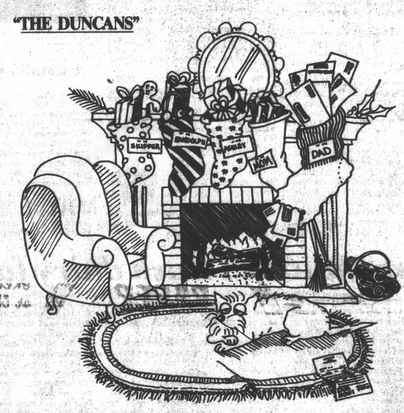
"THE DUNCANS"



It's Christmas Club time at the Duncans!

Skipper is asking for a ten-speed bike again. Zapper (only his mother calls him Randolph) is still wishing for a home computer, and Ashley wants a down-filled coat to wear back to college.

All agree Mom deserves a microwave oven, especially now that she's working part-time, and Dad really wants to say "you've got it!"

So when Mom opened a Christmas Club at American Federal, the news was music to his ears. It's the only way to turn the jingle bill blues into "Jingle Bells" for sure.
